TEMPORARY MODULAR HOUSING

Vancouver is in a housing crisis and homeless people have been the hardest hit

Over 2000 people across the city of Vancouver said they were homeless for the 2017 Homeless Count

Hundreds of people are living outside with nowhere to sleep, use the washroom, or get regular food and water

People are suffering both physically and mentally

People who are homeless are men, women, seniors and youth

Other actions helping homeless residents

- 300 temporary shelter beds open for the winter months
- Warming centres will be opened when the temperature reaches -5 or below
- 1000 new units of permanent social housing will be opening between before the end of 2018
- As part of the new Housing Vancouver strategy, the City will build 12,000 new units of social and supportive housing over the next 10 years

Ensuring people have a place to call home

- The City of Vancouver and BC Housing are partnering to build Temporary Modular Housing
- Located on vacant and underused sites across the city
- Bringing people into homes with supports as quickly as possible
- This is an urgent effort to get homeless people into homes now

This site is a partnership between:

- City of Vancouver
- VAHA
- BC Housing
- Onni Group
- Community Builders Group

The site will hold:

- Two temporary modular buildings on the corner of Heather St and West 59th Ave
- Each building:
 - Three storeys
 - 39 single studios
 - Approximately 7 studios wheelchair accessible

The buildings will be in place for up to five years, with the possibility to extend another five years

Ensuring people have a place to call home

Our priorities for this site are to house:

- People who are unsheltered or living in shelters
- People who are 45 years and older
- Persons with disabilities
- Homeless people living in the local neighbourhood

Residents will be carefully selected making sure this housing is the right fit for individuals

Managing housing safely and responsibly

- Residents apply through BC Housing with support from City of Vancouver outreach team
- Buildings will be operated and managed by Community Builders Group
- Residents will pay rent
- All residents will have access to health and support services

Community Builders Group

- Professional, non-profit housing operator
- 15 years of experience in Vancouver
- Specialize in supports for persons with a variety of needs
- Community Builders will manage the building:
 - 24 hours a day
 - 7 days a week

Managing housing safely and responsibly

Community Builders and Vancouver Coastal Health will provide support services to the residents:

- Health services
- Home support
- Laundry
- Employment services

TEMPORARY MODULAR HOUSING

- Each new home will be approximately 250 square feet
- Includes a bathroom and kitchen
- 14 homes will be fully accessible
